HAMPTON CARRARA

For an all-white look that's surprisingly cozy, Hampton Carrara marble is a gorgeous choice. Hints of grey and tan warm up this beautifully subtle stone and differentiate it from other white tiles. Create a soothing, monochromatic design using different coordinating sizes and shapes of Hampton Carrara, or pair it with other collections where it functions as an anything-but-basic neutral. The marble shower, backsplash, wall or floor you've been dreaming about is within reach with this collection.

DESIGNER

This wall and floor tile collection should be experienced firsthand to be fully appreciated. Looks can be deceiving, and the Armani/Roca tiles offer much more than initially meets the eye. The luxurious, lightly textured surface, made possible by technology from Rock & Rock, creates a feeling of warmth instead of starkness. The large-format tiles also cover walls and floors cleanly and with fewer visible seams than smaller tiles, opening up the space. Opt for any of these beautiful, neutral tiles to bring soft and elegant style to your space.

TILE PURCHASING AGREEMENT

The product you are purchasing is either a natural stone product quarried and cut from stone quarries, clay tile or other product processed and manufactured to achieve certain effects of color and texture.

You understand and agree that stone is a natural product subject to variations in size, color, shade, veining, texture and polish. These variations are what make natural stone unique.

All stone samples are provided by the manufacturer and are intended to convey the characteristics of a certain type of stone, but variations will occur.

You understand that the product's conformity to a sample is not assured and is not the basis of the Sales Agreement.

Although manufactured and processed tiles may be more uniform, they can also have variations in color and texture. In addition, the color of any sample may display differently when large amounts of the color are visible.

Where sales taxes are applicable, all orders are subject to the taxes in the location where the customer picks up/receives the order.

TILE SPECIFICATION SHEETS

Technical data for porcelain and ceramic tiles is available to view and download on our website. If the product you wish to obtain a tile specification sheet for is not listed, we do not currently have it available.

Natural stone is not manufactured; it is a product of nature. For this reason, it is not tested the same as porcelain and ceramic tiles. Test results will not be available for natural stone products such as travertine, limestone, marble, onyx, or slate. For specific questions about natural stone, please reference our Information and Resources web pages, or contact a Tile Shop customer service representative for additional information.
