

A STRONG FOUNDATION, PROVEN SUCCESS

LEADERSHIP

INNOVATION

PARTNERSHIP

From its start as a small camera company in 1937, Canon has become an international leader of digital imaging solutions in the consumer, business-to-business, and industrial sectors, with millions of loyal customers worldwide. With skilled and passionate people and an enduring commitment to research and development (R&D), Canon has successfully navigated through more than eight decades of change.

In this age of digital transformation, data is moving across the globe faster than ever. To keep pace, companies must adopt new technologies and business processes or risk falling behind. But you don't need to do it alone! Canon delivers state-of-the-art business solutions; reliable, proven technologies; an award-winning, customer-first support network; and a dedicated, nationwide team of experts—all standing ready to help you every step of the way.

Moreover, the corporate philosophy of Kyosei—a pledge to see all people harmoniously living and working together for the common good—is at the heart of Canon's commitment to its customers and the planet we share.

With its strong foundation and proven success in delivering amazing business solutions, along with a sincere desire to better the world, it's easy to see why Canon is the natural partner for business.
