Last updated: January 15, 2025

These supplier terms and conditions, the last updated version of which can be found at usa.canon.com/supplier-terms-and-conditions (“Terms and Conditions”) and the Purchase Order (collectively, the “Agreement”), are the entire and exclusive agreement between Canon U.S.A., Inc. (“Company”) and Supplier concerning the Products and/or Services (hereafter “Products/Services”) provided or to be provided by Supplier in connection with a Purchase Order, except to the extent the sale and purchase of the Products/Services are governed by a separate written agreement executed by Company and Supplier. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, all prior and/or contemporaneous negotiations and agreements, oral or written, concerning the Products/Services are superseded by this Agreement. No course of prior dealings between the parties, usage of trade or acquiescence in any course of performance hereunder will be relevant to supplement or explain any term used in this Agreement. We reserve the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time in our sole discretion, which such modified Terms and Conditions will be posted at usa.canon.com/supplier-terms-and-conditions, and are effective as of the “Last updated” date of these Terms and Conditions. Supplier shall be responsible for checking such “Last updated” date. Your continued business with Company (including the provision of Products/Services) following the “Last updated” date constitutes your acceptance of these Terms and Conditions. If you do not agree to these Terms and Conditions, you may not do business with Company. Supplier represents, warrants, and covenants to Company, upon which representation, warranty and covenant Company expressly relies in submitting or issuing a Purchase Order to Supplier, that any terms different from or in addition to the terms of this Agreement, whether communicated orally or in writing, or contained in any Supplier general conditions of sale, proposal, quotation, price list, acknowledgment, invoice, packing slip or the like used by Supplier (“Additional Terms”), regardless of the timing or means of such communication, shall not form part of this Agreement, even if Supplier purports to condition Supplier’s acceptance of the Purchase Order or this Agreement on Company’s agreement to such Additional Terms, and that Company is not bound by and hereby expressly rejects all such Additional Terms. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in the preceding sentence or otherwise herein, any Additional Terms communicated by or on behalf of Supplier in writing related to a Purchase Order that Company deems in Company’s sole discretion to be favorable to Company and applicable with respect to such Purchase Order (“Permitted Additional Terms”), shall form part of this Agreement with respect to such Purchase Order. If there are any conflicts amongst the terms of this Agreement, the terms of a Purchase Order, and the Permitted Additional Terms, the terms most favorable to Company shall control. Capitalized terms used in these Terms and Conditions, and not otherwise defined, are defined in Section 1 (Definitions) below.

(a) Supplier will not deliver any Products to, or perform any Services for, Company, or incur any expenses related thereto, except as specified in a Purchase Order issued by Company and received by Supplier. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Company will pay the full price listed in the Purchase Order for each type and quantity of the Products/Services. Supplier will invoice Company for the Products/Services no later than thirty (30) days after the date that Supplier ships the Products to Company and/or completes the Services for Company, as applicable, and Supplier hereby agrees to waive payment of any invoice submitted later than ninety (90) days after such shipment and/or completion, as applicable. Each invoice will contain, at a minimum: (i) the Company Purchase Order number, (ii) a description of the Products/Services delivered and/or performed, including serial numbers (if applicable), and related expenses, if any, (iii) quantity and unit price(s), (iv) Supplier's name and invoice date, (v) name (where applicable), title, phone number, and complete mailing address and remit address of responsible person at Supplier, (vi) wire transfer or ACH instructions (if applicable), and (vii) such other documentation or information as Company may request from time to time. Each invoice shall be submitted as directed by Company in the Purchase Order. Nothing in this Agreement obligates Company to purchase any minimum amount of Products/Services from Supplier.

(b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, valid and undisputed invoices are due and payable (i) within sixty (60) days after Company's receipt for payments made by ACH and (ii) within seventy-five (75) days after Company's receipt for payments made by check. Company will be entitled to any prompt payment discounts agreed upon by Company and Supplier in writing for any invoice paid within such sixty (60) days. If Company accepts Products delivered more than five (5) business days prior to any delivery date specified in the Purchase Order, the time period for payment and discounts will not commence for those Products until the later of Company's receipt of Supplier's invoice for such Products or the specified delivery date. Payment will not constitute acceptance of Products/Services, or impair Company's right to inspect. If Supplier fails to fulfill any of Supplier's obligations under this Agreement, Company may suspend or withhold payment to Supplier. The purchase price of the Products/Services is subject to set-off against any credits, refunds or claims of any kind claimed or asserted by Company related to any Purchase Order or agreement. Except for taxes pursuant to Section 4 (Taxes) below, charges not previously agreed upon will not be payable by Company.

3. Changes. Company may make changes within the general scope of the Purchase Order upon written notice to Supplier. Supplier will notify Company in writing within five (5) days after receipt of such notice if the change will affect the delivery schedule or price. Company is not responsible for additional charge(s) unless authorized in advance by Company in writing by a duly authorized Company representative. Supplier agrees that it will make no changes or modifications to specifications, designs, materials, processes, procedures, facilities, validations or subcontractors that affect Products supplied to Company and/or affect Services provided to Company without prior written approval of Company.

4. Taxes. Company shall pay or reimburse Supplier for sales, use, excise or similar transaction taxes imposed on the sale of Products/Services to Company under this Agreement, to the extent such taxes are statutorily imposed on Company. In lieu thereof, and if applicable, Company will provide Supplier with a tax exempt number or, at Supplier's request, a tax exemption certificate acceptable to the taxing authority. Company shall not pay or reimburse Supplier for any taxes imposed on Supplier's income, capital, net worth or property, nor any employment-related taxes on Supplier or Supplier Personnel. Any taxes to be paid by Company will be separately stated on Supplier's invoice, with identification of the type of tax, the applicable tax rate, the amount of tax charged and the taxing authorities, and shall be in a form that meets local tax requirements to ensure deductibility and tax recovery. If Supplier receives a refund of any taxes included in a Purchase Order, or otherwise collected from Company by Supplier, Supplier shall promptly pay Company the amount of the refund, including any interest.

5. Packaging of Products. Supplier, at Supplier's expense, will package and prepare the Products for shipment to Company in accordance with sound commercial practices. Supplier will enclose with each shipment a complete packing list, including: (i) Company's Purchase Order number, (ii) part number(s), (iii) quantity shipped and (iv) the remaining quantity to be shipped, if applicable. Supplier will mark the containers or packages with country of origin, necessary lifting, loading, special handling (including without limitation for items that are fragile or require temperature control) and shipping information, Company's Purchase Order number, part number(s), dates of shipment and names and addresses of consignor and consignee, if applicable. The Bill of Lading number and weight of shipment will be shown for shipment on all Bills of Lading. Supplier shall be responsible for any loss or damage due to Supplier's failure to package and prepare the Products in accordance with this Section 5. Company shall not be required to assert any claims for such loss or damage against the common carrier involved.

6. Delivery. Supplier will deliver the Products to Company, F.O.B. destination, as designated by Company (unless otherwise specified in a specific Purchase Order, which shall only apply to such Purchase Order), in one (1) or more installments by the delivery date specified in the Purchase Order.

7. Variation in Quantity. Except as approved in writing by Company, if Supplier delivers fewer or more Products than Company orders, or if the Products are delivered by Supplier to Company more than five (5) business days after any delivery date specified in the Purchase Order, those Products need not be accepted by Company. Accordingly, Company may receive, hold and return such Products to Supplier at Supplier's sole risk and expense.

8. Inspection and Acceptance. Company may, but need not, inspect the Products within ninety (90) days after actual receipt. Acceptance of the Products is based on Company's standard test procedures for such Products. Rejected Products may, at Company's option, either be returned or held for Supplier's instructions. Inspection, reshipment and return costs incurred with respect to such rejected Products will be borne by Supplier. Unless Company directs, Supplier will not replace returned Products.

Company will have ninety (90) days from completion of the Services to either (i) notify Supplier in writing of Company's acceptance of the completed Services, or (ii) notify Supplier in writing specifying Company's rejection of the completed Services and Company's reasons therefor. At Company's option, Supplier will promptly rectify the rejected Services.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any acceptance of Products/Services is subject to compliance of the Products/Services with the terms of this Agreement, including, without limitation, compliance with Section 10 (Warranties) below.

9. Cancellation. A Purchase Order may be cancelled, in whole or in part, by Company (i) in the case of Products, at no charge, upon written notice to Supplier at least thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled delivery date specified or confirmed by Company, (ii) in the case of Services, at no charge, upon written notice to Supplier at least ten (10) days prior to the date Services are scheduled to be rendered/performed, as specified or confirmed by Company, (iii) upon written notice to Supplier if the Products or Services are not delivered on or before the delivery date specified or confirmed by Company, (iv) upon written notice to Supplier if Supplier fails to comply with any Applicable Law, or if Company reasonably believes that Supplier has failed to do so, or (v) if Supplier fails to procure and maintain the insurance required by this Agreement. Any Products delivered to Company pursuant to such cancelled Purchase Order may be received, held and returned to Supplier at Supplier's risk and expense. If Company agrees to accept deliveries after the specified delivery date, Company may direct Supplier to make shipment to the destination designated by Company by the most expeditious means available at Supplier's sole expense. Upon receipt of a cancellation notice from Company, Supplier will immediately stop performing all work related to the Services under the applicable Purchase Order (unless Company directs Supplier to continue work until a specified date), and Company will have no further liability to Supplier other than to pay Supplier the pro rata amount of the amount set forth on the Purchase Order for Services completed on or prior to the cancellation date, and accepted by Company. Notwithstanding any expiration, termination or cancellation of this Agreement or any Purchase Order, Company shall have the right to continue to use the Products supplied by Supplier prior to the cancellation date.

10. Warranties. Supplier expressly represents and warrants to Company as follows:

(a) For a period of one (1) year from Company's receipt of the Products, unless another period is specified in a specific Purchase Order (which such period shall apply only to such Purchase Order), each unit of the Products will (i) be in good working order, free from defects in design, materials, construction and workmanship, (ii) conform with the descriptions and specifications for that Product, and (iii) be merchantable and fit for the purposes expressed in or reasonably inferable from the specifications or other descriptions of the Products, which are referred to and incorporated herein by reference. At Company's option, Supplier will, at Supplier's sole expense, repair or replace, or refund the purchase price paid by Company for, any Product that does not conform to this warranty.

(b) Supplier shall perform the Services, or shall ensure that the Services are performed, with due skill and care, in a professional manner, by sufficiently qualified and trained staff. Supplier shall be fully liable for any and all third parties with which Supplier has contracted in connection with the Services. The Services, and all Deliverables furnished in connection with the Services, will be of good quality, be developed using proper materials and be free from defects in design, materials, construction and workmanship for a period ending one (1) year from the date of acceptance, unless another period is specified in a specific Purchase Order (which such period shall apply only to such Purchase Order). At Company's option, Supplier will either (i) at Supplier's sole expense, (A) correct all Services performed by Supplier or at Supplier's direction, and replace or repair all Deliverables furnished by Supplier, which are found to be defective in design, materials, construction or workmanship, and (B) be responsible for any damage to the Services and/or Deliverables that may occur during the removal, replacement or repair of Deliverables in connection with clause (A); or (ii) refund the purchase price paid by Company for any Services and/or Deliverables that do not conform to this warranty.

(c) The Products/Services will be free from any and all security interests or other liens and encumbrances, restrictions, settlements, judgments or adverse claims.

(d) The Products will comply with, and be manufactured, assembled, packaged, transported, priced, advertised, branded, invoiced, sold and labeled in compliance with, all Applicable Law, and all information regarding the Products provided by or on behalf of Supplier to Company, including all weights, measures, sizes, legends or descriptions printed, stamped, attached or otherwise indicated with regard to the Products, will be true and correct.

(e) The Products will be genuine and are not counterfeit, adulterated, misbranded or falsely labeled.

(f) The Products/Services will be provided with, and be accompanied by all information and instructions necessary for proper and safe use. Where applicable, Supplier will provide Company with a current, complete and accurate Safety Data Sheet (SDS), or similar applicable product safety sheet(s), for the Products.

(g) Supplier, Supplier Personnel, any person under Supplier's direction or control and the Services are in compliance with, and will maintain compliance with, all Applicable Law. Supplier has adopted and implemented appropriate and effective policies to ensure compliance with Applicable Law. If Supplier believes there is any violation of Applicable Law, Supplier shall immediately inform Company in writing of the violation.

(h) Without limiting the foregoing provisions of Section 10(g), Supplier represents, warrants and covenants that it and Supplier Personnel shall abide by and comply with the requirements of this Section 10(h) and that: (i) each of them is in compliance with Applicable Law and Company policies, procedures and/or guidelines with respect to human rights; (ii) Supplier provides, and will continue to provide, training to Supplier Personnel regarding compliance with Applicable Law regarding human rights; and (iii) none of the following, or other, human rights violations was or will be involved, in whole or in part, in the production or manufacture of the Products or provision of Services, provided or to be provided to Company, or otherwise in the performance of the Agreement and business of Supplier and Supplier Personnel: forced labor, involuntary labor, child labor, human trafficking. Supplier agrees to insert the substance of this Section 10(h), including this sentence, in any sub-tier subcontract.

(i) Supplier represents, warrants and covenants that it shall employ appropriate, reasonable and up-to-date technical, administrative, physical and operational security measures and policies, which binds Supplier and all Supplier Personnel, that are in compliance with Applicable Law and that protect the Confidential Information from a Security Incident. Supplier may satisfy this obligation by implementing practices that equal or exceed the practices identified by the National Institute of Standards and Technology ("NIST"), the International Organization for Standardization/International Electrotechnical Commission ("ISO/IEC") 27000 series or a comparable industry standard, and include: (1) physical security standards, (2) measures such as anti-virus software, patches and other protections designed to secure Supplier's environment from known vulnerabilities, (3) access, identification and authentication controls, and (4) the use of encryption to protect Confidential Information in transit and Confidential Information at rest. Supplier shall also ensure that all Supplier Personnel receive appropriate training on Applicable Law, information security and data protection, and if requested by Company shall promptly confirm in writing that such training has taken place. Supplier will take all reasonable steps to minimize the amount of and the types of Personal Information collected so that Personal Information is only requested, collected and accessed as necessary to fulfill the obligations under the Agreement, consistent with the NIST Privacy Framework best practices.

(j) If providing the Products/Services involves the use, handling, maintaining, removal, transport, disposal of, or other action related to, hazardous materials, Supplier will be responsible for such actions. Supplier will manage and dispose of any and all hazardous materials in a safe and workmanlike manner, consistent with accepted industry standards and practices and, in accordance with Applicable Law. Supplier will be responsible for the provision, maintenance, and updating of, any permits or licenses required and related to hazardous materials.

(k) Supplier has, or will obtain, all the rights and licenses in the Products necessary to allow Company to use, market, license and/or resell such Products without restriction or additional charge. All required licenses in relation to the Products are, and shall remain, valid and in place, the scope of such licenses shall properly cover the intended use of the Products, and all such licenses shall include the right to transfer and the right to grant sublicenses. The Products/Services do not violate, infringe or misappropriate any third party's Intellectual Property rights and there are no claims or suits threatened, pending or contemplated against Supplier (or to the knowledge of Supplier against the manufacturer of any Product if Supplier is not the manufacturer of the Product), for infringement or misappropriation of any Intellectual Property rights occurring anywhere throughout the world and relating to the Products/Services.

(l) If any Products are the subject of a Recall, Supplier shall be responsible for all matters, costs, and expenses associated with the Recall, including, but not limited to: (i) consumer notification and contact, (ii) all expenses and losses incurred by Company in connection with such Recall (and where applicable, any products with which the Recalled Products have been packaged, consolidated or commingled), including but not limited to refunds to customers, lost profits, transportation costs, the cost to Company of Company's associates' time, system expenses in processing any Recall, and all other costs associated therewith, and (iii) initial contact and reporting of the Recall to any government entity having jurisdiction over the Recalled Products. Supplier shall promptly, and in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours after Supplier's decision to initiate a Recall or Supplier's receipt of a Recall notice from a government entity, inform Company of the Recall. Supplier shall promptly inform Company of Supplier becoming aware of any defect in the Products, including any defect that could reasonably be expected to cause damage, illness, injury or death to humans, animals, or property, or the noncompliance of the Products with any Applicable Law, whether identified by Supplier, a government entity or by Company. If a government entity initiates any inquiry or investigation related to the Products or similar or related products of Supplier, Supplier shall notify Company immediately thereof (providing the Purchase Order number and sufficient detail) and take reasonable steps to resolve the matter without exposing Company to any liability or risk.

(m) None of the terms (including, without limitation, pricing) offered to any entity or person with respect to the Products/Services provided, or to be provided, by Supplier in connection with a Purchase Order, is or will be more favorable to such entity or person than those offered and/or provided by Supplier to Company with respect to such Products/Services. If, contrary to the preceding sentence, Supplier has offered or provided terms to another entity or person which are more favorable than those offered or provided to Supplier with respect to such Products/Services, these Terms and Conditions shall be, without any further action by Supplier or Company, deemed amended and modified so that Company shall receive the benefit of the more favorable terms. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Supplier agrees, at its expense, to take such other actions (such as entering into amendments to these Terms and Conditions, and adjusting pricing and rebates retroactively and prospectively) as Company may reasonably request to further effectuate the intent of this Section 10(m). The requirements of sub-section (4) above may be satisfied by an SSAE 18 Type II Report (as described in the then-current Statement on Standards for Attestation Engagements No. 18, Reporting on Controls at a Service Organization, of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants) ("SSAE 18") or any successor report. Supplier represents, warrants and agrees that all information provided to Company or Company's designee in connection with such requests shall be accurate and complete, and that any changes affecting such information shall be promptly reported to Company in sufficient detail. Supplier shall not make any false or misleading representations in connection with any Company transaction including, but not limited to, oral misrepresentations of fact, the promotion or utilization of false documentation such as non-genuine customer purchase orders, fraudulent or forged documents, forged letters of destruction and/or other false, misleading or inaccurate records. In the event a material breach or any wrongdoing is found, Supplier shall reimburse Company for the fees, costs and expenses associated with the request, audit or inspection.
